Terms and conditions of study at The Campbell Institute

(The Campbell Institute is part of ACG Education)

Summary of terms implied by statute

This summary records the minimum requirements imposed on the School/College by statute as at the date of publication of this enrolment form. The summary will be deemed to be incorporated into each Contract of Enrolment.

The summary is not intended to be a substitute for the statutory requirements and in the event of any conflict between the summary and a statute, the terms of the relevant statute will prevail. If any relevant statute is amended following the date of publication of this summary and such an amendment imposes more onerous or obligations on the School/College then this summary and the Contract of Enrolment will be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Student fee protection

Section 236A of the Education Act 1989 requires student fees to be placed in an approved trust account to provide security for the repayment of prepaid fees in the event programmes are terminated early. Accordingly, student fees paid in advance are held by the Public Trust. Fees are drawn down after commencement in stages as the course is completed.

In the event a programme is terminated and alternative tuition services are not provided, the student is entitled to a refund of prepaid student fees pro rata for the balance of the course based upon the number of full weeks required to complete the programme.

Privacy Act

The Privacy Act came into force on 1 July 1993 with the stated aim of protecting the privacy of natural persons. It requires the College to collect, hold, handle, use and disclose personal information in accordance with the twelve information privacy principles in the Act. legislation.govt.nz/act/public/1993/0028/latest/DLM296639.html.

Personal information collected by the College during the enrolment process and during the period in which the student is enrolled at the College is intended for use in connection with the education and well-being of the student and may be used by any of the staff of the College or consultant to the College in connection with that purpose. The College must comply with the requirements of the Ministry of Education (student statistical returns), New Zealand Qualifications Authority (Record of Learning registration and Unit Standard outcomes), Tertiary Education Commission (funding returns), Industry Training Organisations (funding and academic outcomes), Ministry of Social Development (confirmation of enrolment and academic outcomes), Inland Revenue Department (student loan interest rebate), Immigration New Zealand (if you are not a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident) and agencies who support particular students through scholarships and prizes, payment of fees or other awards (if you are a recipient of one of these awards). The information is also used to select students for qualifications, to manage internal administrative processes, and for internal reporting. Information about students may be supplied to, and sought from, other educational organisations for the purpose of verifying academic records.

In addition, the College may release information to Government agencies such as the New Zealand Police, Department of Justice, Ministry of Social Development and the Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC). In signing the Campbell Terms and Conditions when you accept an offer to study you authorise such disclosure on the understanding that the College will observe the general conditions governing the release of information, as set out in the Privacy Act 1993 and Section 226A of the Education Act 1989, disclosure of enrolment information by institutions. You may see any information held about you and amend any errors in that information.

- A notice of withdrawal due to exceptional circumstances may, at the sole discretion of the ACG Registrar, be accepted as grounds for a refund of tuition fees. The ACG Registrar may require documentary evidence in support of the application for the refund, and a refund may not be made if the written notice of withdrawal is unreasonably delayed. Exceptional circumstances may include: inability to obtain a student visa; serious illness or disability of the student; death of a student or close family member (parent, sibling, spouse or child); and, political, civil or natural event that prevents arrival of the student. In the event of a withdrawal from a course/s 10 or more working days after course commencement, the School/College will deduct any fees which have been paid or incurred by the School/College or other representatives (including the student's representative/agent fees). Amendments

- As at April 2019, every attempt was made to present accurate information (including the fees) in this application form.
- ACG reserves the right to change the programmes it offers and the fees, terms and conditions applicable to those programmes. ACG will give students reasonable notice prior to making such a change. Where such a change has a material adverse effect on the student, the student may terminate this Contract of Enrolment by giving notice to the College within two weeks' notice of being informed of the change. Where the student terminates this Contract of Enrolment, the student will be entitled to receive a refund of any funds paid which relate to the period after the termination date.
- For the avoidance of doubt, the fees and material terms and conditions which apply at the time that the student is offered and accepts enrolment to a School/College will apply throughout that enrolment.
